Once the department supervisor/manager knows the hours and it is deemed that the employee needed for work would qualify for overtime, that supervisor/manager must first attempt to schedule another employee. If there are no other employees available to fulfill the work required either on availability or short notice, then that supervisor/manager can approve the overtime for the said employee. 21.5 Working Conditions Meeting

21.5.1 In the event that the Employer and/or the Union receives notification that a trade union has established a picket line at any entrance of the University of Victoria, or that an employer has served a lockout notice or a trade union has served a strike notice which might, if acted upon, result in the establishment of such a picket line, the Labour Management Committee shall meet to determine the advisability of maintaining the operations of the Society.

21.5.2 This meeting shall be convened within one (1) working day of receiving such notification.

21.6 If the Employer intends to change the nature of the operation, the parties shall meet pursuant to Section 54 of the Labour Relations Code as follows:

Adjustment Plan

54 (1) If an employer introduces or intends to introduce a measure, policy, practice or change that affects the terms, conditions or security of employment of a significant number of employees to whom a collective agreement applies,

(a) the employer must give notice to the trade union that is party to the collective agreement at least 60 days before the date on which the measure, policy, practice or change is to be effected, and

(b) after notice has been given, the employer and trade union must meet, in good faith, and endeavour to develop an adjustment plan, which may include provisions respecting any of the following:

(i) consideration of alternatives to the proposed measure, policy, practice or change, including amendment of provisions in the collective agreement;
(ii) human resource planning and employee counselling and retraining;
(iii) notice of termination;
(iv) severance pay;
(v) entitlement to pension and other benefits including early retirement benefits;
(vi) a bipartite process for overseeing the implementation of the adjustment plan.

(2) If, after meeting in accordance with subsection (1), the parties have agreed to an adjustment plan, it is enforceable as if it were part of the collective agreement between the employer and the trade union.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to the termination of the employment of employees exempted by section 65 of the Employment Standards Act from the application of section 64 of that Act.
ARTICLE 22 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

22.1 "Grievance" shall mean any difference or dispute arising between the Employer and the Union, concerning the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement, whether between the Employer and any employees protected by this Agreement, or between the Employer and the Union including whether or not any issue is arbitrable.

22.2 Types of Grievances

22.2.1 Individual Grievance: a grievance, whether initiated by an individual or by the Union that is confined in scope to a particular employee.

22.2.2 Group Grievance: where the matter is of concern to a group of employees or several individual grievances, after being consolidated at some stage, are brought forward as one grievance.

22.2.3 Policy Grievance: where either party disputes the general application, interpretation or alleged violation of an article of this Agreement, where the matter of concern is not specifically confined in scope to a particular employee.

22.2.4 Union Grievance: where the matter of concern is of specific concern to the Union. The Union shall have the right to originate a grievance on behalf of an employee or a group of employees.

22.3 The Employer and the Union are encouraged to resolve complaints informally. Informal discussion of complaints shall occur within ten (10) calendar days of becoming aware of the occurrence or recurrence of the event giving rise to the issue. Any informal resolution of a complaint will be without prejudice or precedent with respect to the interpretation or application of the Agreement. Failing settlement of the complaint, it may be taken up as a grievance by the Union according to the procedures outlined in Article 22.4. The procedure for settling Group or Individual Grievances shall start at Step One. The procedure for starting Policy or Union Grievances shall begin at Step Two.

22.4 Grievance Procedure

22.4.1 STEP 1 - Fourteen (14) calendar days from becoming aware of the occurrence of the matter at issue, the employee and the Union Steward will meet with an Excluded Manager chosen by the Excluded Managers, and shall endeavour to settle the dispute. The Steward shall cite the details and nature of the dispute, the relevant articles of the Agreement and the remedy sought.

22.4.2 STEP 2 - Should no settlement ensue within seven (7) calendar days of the meeting in Step 1, a grievance shall be referred, in writing, to one of the other Excluded Managers chosen by the Excluded Managers, who shall meet with the Union Steward and the employee and endeavour to settle the dispute. The written grievance shall state the details and nature of the grievance, cite relevant articles of the Collective Agreement, and specify the remedy sought.

22.4.3 STEP 3 - Should no settlement ensue within seven (7) calendar days of the serving of the written notice in Step 2, the grievance shall be referred to Local Union 2009 Service Representative or District Staff Representative and the Employer’s Personnel Committee who shall endeavour to settle the dispute.

22.4.4 STEP 4 - Should the foregoing process fail to settle the issue within fourteen (14) calendar days the matter will proceed to Arbitration.
22.5 The Employer shall reply to grievances in writing at all stages. Where a grievance settlement is denied, the reply shall include reasons for denying the grievance settlement. Upon settlement of a grievance, written documentation shall be made of any agreement reached and shall be signed by representatives of both parties.

22.6 The Employer shall not be required to consider any grievance that is not presented within 14 working days after the grievor or the Union first become aware of the alleged violation of the Collective Agreement. Thereafter, the time limits specified in this procedure may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. The Employer agrees that any time limit missed by either party is a concession of the grievance and remedy requested.

22.7 Confidentiality

22.7.1 The Employer recognizes the principle of confidentiality and agrees that the identity of any affected employees shall only be made available on a "need to know" basis.

22.7.2 After a grievance has been initiated by the Union, the Employer shall not enter into discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly, with the affected employee(s) without the consent of the Union.

22.8 If so requested by either party, an employee shall be permitted the necessary time off without loss of pay or benefits to attend to the adjustment of a grievance and may be present at any stage in the grievance procedure. Overtime and minimum call-in provisions shall apply.

22.9 If the Union, an employee, or a group of employees, choose not to grieve a particular situation or withdraw at any stage, such action or lack of action shall be entirely without prejudice.

22.10 It is the intent of the Employer and Union that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a typographic error or unintentional misnomer.

22.11 The Employer shall not introduce to the grievance or arbitration procedure any document involving disciplinary action, of which the employee was unaware at the time of filing the grievance.

ARTICLE 23 - ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

23.1 Where a difference arises between the Parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that this Agreement has been violated, either of the Parties may after exhausting any grievance procedure established by this Agreement, notify the other Party in writing of its desire to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration.

23.2 The Arbitrator shall hear and determine the subject of the grievance and shall issue a decision which is final and binding upon the parties and any employee or member of Management affected by it.

23.3 The Arbitrator shall determine their own procedures, but shall give full opportunities to the parties to present evidence and make representations.

23.4 The Arbitrator shall not have the power to alter or amend any of the provisions of this Agreement.
23.5 The parties and the Arbitrator shall have access to the Employer’s premise to view working conditions, machinery, or operations which may be of relevance to the resolution of the grievance.

23.6 The Arbitrator shall have the power to amend a grievance, modify penalties, and relieve against non-compliance with time limits, or any other technicality or irregularity.

23.7 The Arbitrator shall have jurisdiction to determine whether a grievance is grievable.

23.8 Except where otherwise provided for in this Agreement, each of the Parties hereto will bear its own expenses with respect to any arbitration proceedings. The Parties hereto will bear jointly the expenses of the arbitrator on an equal basis.

23.9 No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not first been properly carried through all preceding steps of any Grievance Procedure.

ARTICLE 24 - PAY RATE CLASSIFICATION DESCRIPTIONS

24.1 The Employer shall provide the Union with a copy of the recognized pay rate classification description for each group of employees included in this Bargaining Unit.

24.2 The pay rate classifications, positions, and descriptions listed in the attached Pay Rate Classifications List are part of this Agreement.

24.3 No employee may perform work within a pay rate classification for a rate other than that set forth in this Agreement.

24.4 All new or modified pay rate classifications, positions, and descriptions shall be negotiated at Labour Management Committee per Article 4.6.

ARTICLE 25 - PAYMENT OF WAGES AND ALLOWANCES

Such time off may be scheduled prior to the event, at the employees’ option.

25.3 The Employer will make provisions so that there shall be no undue delay in issuing cheques on pay day. Wages will be paid by direct deposit to employees who provide their banking information to the employee’s bank account so no undue delay in payment on pay day will occur. All employees will have the option to either have direct deposit or manual cheque for their pay.

25.4 The rate or rates of pay, hours of work, details for overtime hours and all necessary and pertinent information shall be furnished to each employee on their pay statement.

25.5 Final Payment of Wages

25.5.2 An employee who voluntarily resigns from employment, or who voluntarily leaves the Bargaining Unit, shall be paid all wages due to them as promptly as possible.

25.6 Mileage Allowance

25.6.1 As a condition of employment, the Employer does not require anyone to own a car. When transportation is required, it is preferred that the employee uses a rental. If the employee elects to use their own vehicle they will be compensated at the approved mileage rate.

25.6.2 Rates paid to employees using their own automobiles for the Employer’s business shall be as per the Canada Revenue Agency’s approved rate.

25.6.3 Where required by the Insurance Corporation of British Columbia, the Employer shall reimburse employees for the cost of any additional insurance coverage necessary as a result of staff using personal vehicles for Employer's business.

25.7.5 The Employer shall advance an amount for anticipated expenses and per diems upon request.

25.8 Accommodation

25.8.1 All employees who are requested to work out of town by the Employer shall be provided with standard hotel accommodation at the Employer's expense in close proximity to the work at hand. If there is more than one (1) person accommodated per room in a hotel, the selection of roommates shall be at the employee’s discretion. Billeting may be an option by mutual agreement.

25.9 When an employee is called into work between 11:00 pm and 7:00 am, or if an overtime period ends during this time, taxi services to and from the home of the employee shall be provided at the Employer's expense, excluding gratuities. Such taxi service shall also apply for employees whose work period ends after the last connecting bus to their home, or after 11:30 pm, whichever is earlier. The Employer reserves the right to organize taxi sharing.

25.10 The Employer shall pay the full cost of any course of instruction required by the Employer for an employee to qualify and/or better improve their abilities to perform their job. Course time and time spent writing examinations shall be considered time worked. Should the course of instruction be requested by an employee and approved by the Employer, then payment shall be upon successful completion of the course.

25.11 Were the terms of the position necessitate an employee, as a condition of employment, to be bondable except by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union, the employee shall be bonded at the expense of the Employer.

ARTICLE 26 - VACATION BENEFITS

26.1 Vacation entitlements shall be calculated from January 1 each calendar year.

26.2 Permanent employees shall be entitled to fifteen (15) working days’ vacation upon being hired, to be calculated on a pro-rated basis if employment is for less than full-time or less than twelve (12) months. This shall increase by one (1) working day per year of continuous service to a maximum of thirty-two (32) working days.

26.2.1 At the end of each calendar year an employee may carry-over up to ten (10) working days of unused vacation time to the next calendar year.

If the employee has exceeded this pro-rated allotment, the difference shall be deducted from the final pay cheques prior to termination.

26.4 The Employer and the Union shall coordinate the vacation schedule by mutual agreement.

26.5 An employee shall be entitled to receive their vacation in an unbroken period unless otherwise mutually agreed upon between the employee and the Employer. An employee may take vacations in broken periods.

26.6 Sick leave will be substituted for vacation where it can be established by the employee that during their vacation they were hospitalized, under the care of a physician for a serious illness or injury or under quarantine. The employee shall notify the Employer at the first opportunity and shall provide written documentation.

26.7 Student employees shall be paid a five percent (5%) premium on their wage, as set out in the attached Wage Schedule, in lieu of vacation days.

26.8 Temporary employees shall be paid a five percent (5%) premium on their wage in lieu of vacation days. All term employees will need to submit weekly time sheets even if working consistent schedules.
