The Office of the Ombudsperson (hereinafter called "the Office") is operated under the aegis of the Office of the Ombudsperson Advisory Committee. It is intended to serve all University of Victoria students, former students and persons who have applied to become students (hereafter collectively referred to as students), and other members of the University community. The Office shall have the following functions:

- a. The Office shall serve as a general information centre for students regarding all University procedures from which concerns or complaints may arise. The Office shall advise students of their rights and responsibilities and shall inform them of their options and the procedures to follow for dealing with their concerns.

- b. The Office shall act as an impartial investigator of students' complaints and may initiate investigations on the Ombudsperson's own motion; where necessary, the Office shall bring findings and recommendations to the attention of the appropriate authorities.
- c. The Office does not replace established channels but may offer advice, facilitation or mediation as appropriate at any stage to assist in the resolution of students' complaints.
- d. Although it does not have authority to make policy or to replace established University procedures, the Office may make recommendations for improvements to policies, procedures and practices.
- e. In the course of investigation and in bringing recommendations forward, the Office shall be concerned with fairness and seek to ensure that the principles of natural justice are observed. Where the Office is satisfied the requirements of these principles have been met, the Office has the right to terminate involvement in the case.

21.2 Operational Guidelines of the Office of the Ombudsperson

- a. The Office adheres to the principles and standards of practice of the Association of Canadian College and University Ombudspersons (ACCUO).
- b. The Office shall operate independently of the University of Victoria (the University), the Board of Directors of the University of Victoria Students' Society (UVSS) and the Executive Board of the Graduate Students' Society (GSS).
- c. The Ombudsperson will avoid conflicts of interest and refrain from activity that could compromise the independence of the Office.
- d. All dealings with the Office are confidential and all Office files are for the exclusive use of the Office.
- e. Notwithstanding the above, the Office is not required to maintain confidentiality in cases involving the commission of a serious crime or where, in the opinion of the Ombudsperson, there is an imminent risk of physical harm or abuse.
- f. The Office shall have access to persons, information and files pertaining to a student provided the student has given written permission to the Office; the Office may have access to other information and files needed to fulfil the functions of the Office as per the memorandum of Agreement between the UVSS, the GSS and the University.
- g. The Office shall keep a suitable record of grievances, findings and recommendations. Historical files may be destroyed after a period of one year with no action. Statistical records shall contain no individual identifiers.
- h. The Office shall report on office operations at the end of the following periods: January 1 - June 30; July 1- December 31; and shall file with the Ombudsperson Advisory Committee (OAC) statistical reports to cover those terms. Subsequent to the Committee's review, annual reports shall be presented to Senate and distributed widely to the University Community.
- i. Where in the course of the Office's operations it becomes evident that there are recurring problems, gaps or inadequacies in University procedures, the Office may seek the advice of the Ombudsperson Advisory Committee on possible strategies and actions, which may include bringing these matters to broad attention of the University Community.
- j. The Office shall publicize its operations using funds available for that purpose.

- k. Any complaint about the application of these Terms of Reference by the Office should be addressed to the Ombudsperson Advisory Committee (OAC).
